MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM

Information for prospective new members:

Fees for new members are levied pro rata per quarter remaining to 31st August.

The playing membership fee includes the following:

- player registration with Tennis NSW (this includes player insurance, permission to enter all sanctioned tournaments, discounts on products and services) note. N/A to Social Membership.
- no competition fees for badge and the club championships
- no court charges in Club times
- new tennis balls are supplied for badge and social play.

Procedure for Membership application:

Complete the application form on the front of this brochure and hand it to a committee member or to Scott Blackburn the resident professional.

Prospective members should be capable of playing at least the lowest standard of competition at our Club. Members however are not required to play in competitions.

If your playing standard is unknown to the Club selectors, two trial tennis afternoons will be arranged either for Saturday or Thursday afternoons.

Applications require 2 weeks to process. Upon acceptance you will receive an invoice which can be paid via direct debit, eftpos, credit card, cheque or cash. An eftpos machine is available at the club. Once this is paid in full your membership will commence.

Prospective new members are most welcome to visit and play at the Club on a Saturday or Thursday afternoon as a visitor. Please make yourself known to member of the committee and make payment of visitor fee to the Court Captain.

Phone contact can be made with one of the following if you have any questions:

President - Craig Withell 0409 116 220

Secretary - Virginia Longfellow 0428 615 155

I agree to abide by all Manly Lawn Tennis Club Rules and By-Laws.
